

Life of Mei

A game by Timothée Decroix

Illustrations by Sabrina Miramon,
Gaël Lannurien
and Pauline Détraz

Contents

- ▲ 1 Tongs Object
- ▲ 1 Pompom Object
- ▲ 50 Memory cards

New Objects

Add the tongs and the pompom to the base game objects. It's up to you to imagine what "feelings" they might allow you to invoke!

Will you use the tongs to surround something, delicately pinch, grab, or to represent a long object?

Will the pompom enable you to represent a fur coat? Or will you dangle it from a finger by its metal ring to represent a wedding ring, or a hanging object visible on the Memory card?

Mei's Memories

Shuffle these Memory cards together with the base game's cards. Mei's fate is intertwined with Léon's.

Biography Bonus

The cards are numbered in their lower-right corners. If you arrange them from 1 to 50, Mei's life unfolds before your eyes. There is also a second number in the lower-right corner to indicate when this occurs in Léon's life. For example, card 7-3 is the 7th card in Mei's life, which happens around the same time as the 3rd card in the base game. This allows you to arrange all 150 cards from the base game and this expansion to form a single timeline.

card from the base game

My grandmother Mei grew up near Paris with her mother, Wen, who had come to France shortly before.

This is Wen, here. And beside her is Hercule. I never knew him, but he was kind of like Grandma Mei's adoptive father. She loved him very much. It was thanks to him that Mei joined the circus, where she spent the better part of her life. She was quite the acrobat!

She adored this bohemian life, but having a house of her own was her true dream. She and Grandfather Léon bought this house.

I made a bunch of memories there with my amazing grandmother. She always supported me, even when I was pretending in the most ludicrous ways!

1980 : WE HAVE OUR HOME!

You already know a bit of the rest of the story, but you will discover other aspects of it, thanks to my grandmother....

